

Professionally Led Meetings

BETTER MEETINGS, BETTER RESULTS

Successful organizations must be able to integrate leadership with effective management. With Sarah Gillen as your Professional Meeting Lead, your next meeting will be more efficient, more enjoyable, and a more focused use of your team's time.

Sarah Gillen, MA, PCC, has extensive training in business group coaching and as a Professional Meeting Lead. She also draws on 30 years professional experience with systems, communication issues, and interpersonal dynamics.

With your team, Gillen will:

- focus on the efficacy of the process AND on your desired outcome
- honor the diversity of talent and helps different styles work together
- help group members communicate more effectively
- have no bias about your change effort, so will help you move toward the optimal outcome
- make sure that the initiative meets metrics and standards
- stay involved until standards are reached
- provide delineated interim results as well as the achieved goal
- help your team respond rapidly to change, even in the face of ambiguity
- help teams work through interpersonal and work difficulties
- help your team meet needs of both visionary & operational systems
- help your workforce be calm and confident, even as changes occur

While facilitators collate data and help everyone have input, Professional Leads can help you reach better outcomes while improving group dynamics and communication, greatly improving ROI. Professionally led meetings are especially productive with:

- Planning initiatives
- Developing leadership and management
- Developing team cohesion
- Creative efforts

To learn more about how to improve your teams, contact Kitty Martin at The Coaching Center of Vermont at (802) 654-8787, or kitty@coachingcenterofvt.com.

Sarah Gillen, MA, LMFT, PCC,

Professional Meeting Lead &
Group Coaching Certification
- Virtual Group Institute &
Randi Sigmund Smith, EdD,
Innovation House, LLC

coachingcenterofvt.com
802.654.8787
877.619.2814